

2012 CLINIC SPEAKERS

DICK BANISZEWSKI - HAMILTON HS, ARIZONA

Coach Baniszewski began his teaching and coaching career at Tempe's McClintock High School in 1984, helping the school win a state championship in 1989. In the fall of 2000 he took over the varsity head football position at McClintock High School and during his stint there he was named 5A Central Region Coach of the Year. He returned to administration as athletic director and assistant principal at Basha High School (AZ) and in 2006 he was named athletic director and assistant principal and assistant football coach at Hamilton High School.

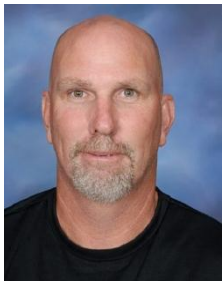

Scheduled to speak: Friday morning, March 2, 2012

RANDY BEGANO - TRINIDAD HS, COLORADO

Coach Begano is the long-time head football coach at Trinidad High School, a position he has held since 1985. He is a graduate of Trinidad, where he played quarterback before attending Adams State College where he was an all-conference player his final three years. His Trinidad Miner teams won at least ten games each year between 1986 and 1991 and compiled three state championships in that time frame. Also the school's athletic director, Coach Begano is very excited to be coaching his son Dante, a sophomore quarterback.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday morning, March 3, 2012

STEVE BELLES - HAMILTON HS, ARIZONA

In the past six years under the guidance the guidance of Coach Belles the Hamilton Huskies have won region titles each year and captured the Arizona 5A state championship in 2006, 2008, 2009 and 2010. He has been named the state's Coach of the Year in 2006 and 2008 and during stints at three Arizona high schools he has won over 75% of his games. Prior to their defeat in the 2011 state finals the Huskies had accumulated a 53 game winning streak. His overall four year record at Hamilton High School is 79-4.

Scheduled to speak: Friday morning, March 2, 2012

BOB BENSON - COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES

Coach Benson has just completed his fourth season as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach, arriving from Towson State in Maryland. Coach Benson spent thirteen seasons as the head football coach at Georgetown University where he led them to six consecutive winning seasons from 1994-99 and won or shared three Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference titles. The Hoyas 8-3 record in 1997 was the first eight-win season since 1940. He has done an outstanding job with the Colorado Mines defense and has the Orediggers at the top of numerous defensive categories.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday afternoon, March 3, 2012

BEN BLACKMON - GULF SHORES HS, ALABAMA

Coach Ben Blackmon has just finished his first year as the head football coach and athletic director at Gulf Shores High School. Coach Blackmon is a graduate of Montgomery High School where he played quarterback for legendary coaches Spence McCracken and Jimmy Perry. He began his coaching career at Opelika High School where he helped them to five 6A region championships and two semi-final playoff appearances. He is a former quarterback at Troy University and while there was named to the Southland League All-Academic Team his senior and junior seasons.

Scheduled to speak: Friday morning, March 2, 2012

BRIAN BLACKMON - OPELIKA HS, ALABAMA

Coach Blackmon has just completed his 16th year coaching at Opelika (Alabama) High School and his second as Head Football Coach. He has been the school's offensive coordinator since 1998 and during that time has built one of the finest and most prolific offenses in the state and nation. In the past ten years the Dawgs have averaged over 30 points per game. Coach Blackmon played collegiately at North Alabama prior to graduating from Troy State University and has become a very popular speaker on the clinic circuit.

Scheduled to speak: Friday morning, March 2, 2012

2012 CLINIC SPEAKERS

DALE BORING - GET FAST SPEED TRAINING

Dale Boring, M.Ed., is the founder and director of the GET FAST Football Camps. He is a Master level exercise physiologist, Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (C.S.C.S.), has sixteen years of training experience, and a well-known clinician. He has trained approximately 10,000 athletes in his career and his GET FAST Program is the most well-known high school football speed training in the Midwest. He has trained 52 high school teams to date and is known as a passionate, well-respected teaching professional.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday afternoon, March 3, 2012

SEAN CONNORS - DIABLO VALLEY JC, CALIFORNIA

Coach Connors joined the staff of Diablo Valley College in 2010 and has elevated the passing game to the top of the nation's statistical categories in a short time. The school's offense ranked tops in the country in passing yards per game, passing touchdowns, and total offense. The past five quarterbacks to play in this system have gone on to play at Louisville, Hawaii, Massachusetts, Fordham, and North Dakota. His talk will deal with making the defense wrong in every front and coverage as well as the option-route concept and the 3-in-1 "trifecta" concept.

Scheduled to speak: Friday morning, March 2, 2012

BOB DAVIE - UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

One of the nation's most high profile coaches has been secured to turn around the fortunes as the University of New Mexico as Bob Davie, former head football coach at Notre Dame, was named to the position in November. Coach Davie gained a great deal of recognition at Texas A & M University as he developed the "Wrecking Crew" as the team's defensive coordinator. He then assumed the same position at Notre Dame, helping the Irish to successful seasons and then taking over for Lou Holtz upon his retirement. Coach Davie compiled an overall record of 31-25 in his five years as head coach there.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday evening, March 3, 2012

NOLAND EASTIN - ROOSEVELT HS, COLORADO

Coach Eastin is a product of Caliche High School in Colorado, where he played for his father, legendary coach Ed Eastin. During his prep career he lost only one game as a high school quarterback and was named the Colorado's Player of the Year in 1994. Following his prep career he attended the University of Northern Colorado where he was a three year starter in the secondary and a return specialist and a member of the school's 1996 and 1997 national championship teams. He has just completed his first season as the head coach at Roosevelt, leading the Roughriders to the state playoffs.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday morning, March 3, 2012

PHOTO

STILL TO

COME

NEW HEAD COACH - FRESNO STATE UNIVERSITY

As we are all aware, changes happen this time of year in college football. Unfortunately Pat Hill has been released as the head football coach at Fresno State University. Traditionally the new coach will honor the speaking times and dates of the released coach. We expect the new coach at the Fresno State to speak at the Denver clinic in 2012. Please check back periodically to updates.

Scheduled to speak: Sunday morning, March 4, 2012

MITCH JOHNSON - FOUNTAIN-FORT CARSON HS, COLORADO

Mitch Johnson has been the head football coach at Fountain-Fort Carson High School for 25 seasons and boasts a 31 year career overall as a football coach. He has led the Trojans through four classification changes as the school has grown over these years and the one constant has been the success he has enjoyed. The totals are 20 winning seasons, 2 state runner-up finishes, 13 playoff appearances and 178 wins. He was chosen in 2005 as a finalist for the USA Today Most Caring Coach in America and spoke at the White House on "Helping America's Youth Program."

Scheduled to speak: Saturday morning, March 3, 2012

2012 CLINIC SPEAKERS

MIKE JOHNSTON - HAMILTON HS, ARIZONA

Mike Johnston has been a member of the Hamilton High School coaching staff since the school opened in 1998. Currently the wide receivers and special teams coach, he has been an instrumental part of the school's six 5A state titles and national ranking. Prior to the school's defeat in the state finals of 2011, Hamilton had accumulated a 53 game winning streak and three straight state championships. Coach Johnston played at BYU for legendary Lavell Edwards and was named to the All-WAC team as a wide receiver and won the Hitachi "Promise of Tomorrow" National Scholar/Athlete award

Scheduled to speak: Friday morning, March 2, 2012

LANE KIFFIN - UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Known as one of the game's brightest young coaches, Lane Kiffin returned to the Trojans' program in January of 2010, having previously been the head coach at the University of Tennessee. Prior to his two seasons as the head coach of the Oakland Raiders Coach Kiffin was the offensive coordinator for the USC Trojans, helping the school become the first program to have a 3,000 yard passer, two 1,000 yard rushers and an 1,000 yard receiver in one season. During his time at USC the school won two national championships.

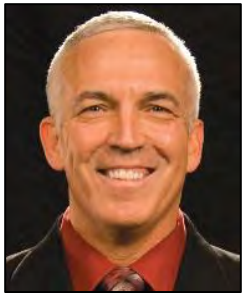

Scheduled to speak: Friday evening, March 3, 2012

FRED MAJERISSON - WIDEFIELD HS, COLORADO

Coach Majerisson has just completed his second season as the head football coach at Widefield High School in Colorado Springs, leading the Gladiators to a 9-1 record and a spot in the Colorado 4A state playoffs. The 2011 squad won the school's first league title since 1996 and this after he took over a program that had been 1-9 in 2009. His 2010 team also qualified for the state playoffs. Coach Majerisson was an assistant at Widefield from 1998 to 2009. He is a graduate of Mesa State College (BA in Human Performance) and earned his MA in School Administration from the University of Phoenix in 2004.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday morning, March 3, 2012

RUSS MARTIN - COLORADO MESA UNIVERSITY

Russ Martin has just been named the head football coach at Colorado Mesa in Grand Junction, arriving from Kearney State in Nebraska, where he was the highly successful offensive coordinator. Coach Martin brings a wealth of experience to the position as his Lopers offense was highly ranked in total offense, scoring offense, rushing offense and passing efficiency offense. He has been an assistant coach at Baylor University, Kansas Wesleyan, Bethany College and also served as the head football coach at Black Hills State in South Dakota. Coach Martin earned his degrees at Chadron State College.

Scheduled to speak: Sunday morning, March 4, 2012

BOB NIELSON - UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA-DULUTH

Coach Nielson has built an outstanding program at UMD, winning the NCAA Division II national championship in 2008 and 2010 and being named Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and Liberty Mutual following the 2010 season. The 2010 Bulldogs finished undefeated at 15-0. Also the school's athletic director, Coach Nielson has been a tremendous success at every level, taking both Wartburg College and Wisconsin-Eau Claire to the national playoffs in Division III and winning Coach of the Year honors at both locations.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday evening, March 3, 2012

BILL O'BOYLE - OFFENSIVE LINE SPECIALIST

Coach O'Boyle is known as one of the top offensive line coaches in the midwest and is certainly not a new face to the coaches of the Rocky Mountain region and the RMAC. The long time an very successful head coach at Chadron State, Coach O'Boyle was named the RMAC Coach of the Year three times and at one time won 28 consecutive league games. His Eagles advanced to the quarter finals of the NCAA Division II playoffs following the 2007 and 2008 seasons. He also was also named the Liberty Mutual Division II Coach of the Year following the 2007 season.

Scheduled to speak: Sunday morning, March 4, 2012

2012 CLINIC SPEAKERS

RICK STEWART - PORTERVILLE HS, CALIFORNIA

Coach Stewart's accomplishments at Porterville High School are truly outstanding. Prior to his arrival the program had won a total of 8 games in the previous five seasons and since then the record is 42-18, including the school's first playoff appearance in 120 years. His team was undefeated league champions in 2010 and he has been selected Coach of the Year twice and is known nationally as a one who can turn around downtrodden programs. His first position saw him take a 1-19 program to the playoffs the second year and his next job a 0-20 team were league champs by the second year.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday morning, February 18, 2012

DABO SWINNEY - CLEMSON UNIVERSITY

Despite being the youngest head football coach in the Atlantic Coast Conference Dabo Swinney has an impressive resume in the sport. A graduate of the University of Alabama in 1993, Coach Swinney lettered three years as a wide receiver for the Crimson Tide, including being part of the 1992 National Championship team and being named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He was an assistant coach at Alabama, helping the Tide to five top ten finishes, one national title, three SEC championships and five SEC Western Division title.

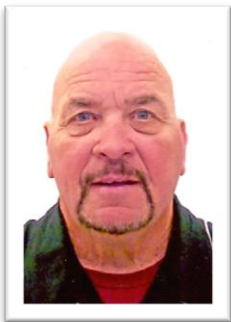

Scheduled to speak: Sunday morning, February 19, 2012

BLAISE WINTER - FORMER NFL DEFENSIVE LINEMAN

An eleven year veteran of the NFL with Colts, Packers and Chargers, Blaise played collegiately at Syracuse University, where he was named MVP of the team in 1983. He has gone on to be recognized as one of the nation's premier motivational and inspirational speakers. Referring to himself as a "self-made man with flaws" Coach Winter speaks with a fresh and sincere style that showcases his passion for making a difference. His program has transformed ordinary people into high performance achievers and energizes the creative fire in each of us.

Scheduled to speak: Saturday morning, February 18, 2012

STEVE ZEIDERS - HAMILTON HS, AZ

Steve Zeiders has been an assistant coach for the Hamilton Huskies since the school opened its doors in 1998, having been a part of all six Arizona 5A state football championships. A football coach for nearly 40 years, he began as a graduate assistant under legendary ASU coach Frank Kush, then moved to either assist or lead numerous high school programs in the Phoenix area. A native of Pennsylvania, Coach Zeiders was an All-Region prep quarterback and still holds the school record in the javelin. Upon graduation from high school he accepted a football scholarship to Arizona State University.

Scheduled to speak: Friday morning, February 17, 2012

