KEN NIUMATOLOLO - NAVY

Ken Niumatololo is a 1989 graduate of the University of Hawaii. He joined the coaching ranks in 1992 and has spent most of his career at Navy, where he was named Head Coach in 2007. In his first 3 seasons, the Midshipmen tallied a school record 27 wins, including 10 in 2009 (a single-season record). In 2010, Navy enjoyed a 9-win season, defeating Army for a series-record ninth straight time, Notre Dame for the second year in a row, and appearing in an eighth consecutive bowl game.

TOPIC: Navy Offense (Thursday)

JERRY KILL - MINNESOTA

Although Jerry Kill is currently in his first season at the helm of the University of Minnesota, he brings an impressive resume to the job. Prior to taking the helm at Minnesota, he compiled an outstanding record of 127-73 in 4 previous Head Coaching positions spanning 17 years. In 14 of those years, his teams had winning records. He is the recipient of several awards including the 2004 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year and the 2007 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

TOPIC: Special Teams (Friday)

DANA HOLGORSSEN - WEST VIRGINIA

A 3-year letterman at Wide Receiver, Dana Holgorsen immediately entered the coaching ranks upon graduation from Iowa Wesleyan in 1993. As one might expect, he has specialized in offense, coaching wide receivers, quarterbacks and as Offensive Coordinator. Wherever he has been he has made his mark, in the form of explosive and high-scoring offenses. In his last stop prior to arriving in Morgantown, Holgorsen was the Offensive Coordinator at Oklahoma State. He was named a finalist for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top Assistant Coach, as he took a Cowboy offense that had been ranked 61st in the nation in 2009 to the #1 spot in 2010. After arriving at West Virginia in June of 2011, Holgorsen had an immediate impact on the Mountaineers, quickly leading them toward the top of the Big East standings. TOPIC: The Spread Offense (Friday)

DOUG MARRONE - SYRACUSE

A 3-year starter at Offensive Line for Syracuse (1983-85), Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater in 2009 to revitalize a program that had fallen on hard times in recent years. In his first season, the Orange showed immediate results, with significant improvement in several statistical areas, particularly on defense. With their 4th-place finish in the Big East last season, Syracuse qualified for the inaugural Pinstripe Bowl, held in the new Yankee Stadium. With many Syracuse alumni in the New York area, the game was an instant success, as the Orange delighted their fans with a 36-34 win over Kansas State. TOPIC: TBA (Saturday)

DANNY HOPE - PURDUE

Danny Hope was appointed Purdue's Associate Head Coach in 2008. He worked with the offensive line and also had a role in recruiting - two areas where he is acknowledged to be among the best in his profession. When Head Coach Joe Tiller retired at the end of the 2008 season, Hope, who had served under Tiller at Purdue from 1997-2001, moved up to the top job. He had previous Head Coaching experience at Eastern Kentucky, where his teams compiled a record of 32-8 in the Ohio Valley Conference. His 2007 team won the OVC championship and advanced to the NCAA Div 1 FCS championship game. He was named OVC Coach of the Year, FCS Region 3 Coach of the Year, and was a finalist for both the AFCA and Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year honors. In Hope's first season at the helm of the Purdue program, the Boilermakers defeated both Ohio State and Michigan in the same season for only the third time in school history. Moreover, the Boilermakers won in Ann Arbor for the first time in 43 years.

TOPIC: TBA (Saturday)
